A Message from the Executive Director Sister Ritamary Schulz, ASCJ

Dear Friends,

As you peruse this issue of Shavings, what appears to look like a list of names is actually an outstanding testimony to the faithfulness of many parents, relatives, friends and benefactors who continue to share in our ministry of working with children and adults with special needs.

That includes you. You are an essential part of this ministry. Through your interest and support you have helped us make Clelian Heights the wonderful place that it is.

Daily, too, I am overwhelmed by the commitment that is evident in the members of our staff and volunteers. Their caring and sharing continues to create a very special atmosphere where learning is rewarding for the children and adults alike. Daily they increase their skills and are challenged to persevere through difficult tasks.

Accept my heartfelt thanks for the part that you play in keeping the spirit of Clelian Heights alive and strong through your support.

All of us working together makes this a winning combination. God bless you!

Sr. Ritamary Schulz
