2005-2006 Annual Report

It is not the magnitude of our actions but the amount of love put into them that matters.

ENDOWMENT FUND

A gift for the future in honor of the past

Why make a gift to the Endowment Fund?

The Endowment Fund was established to ensure that the values we live by today are secure for years to come. Each of us can make a difference--measured not by the size of our donation, but rather by the generosity of our hearts. Designating the Endowment Fund as the recipient of donations, whether of our own gifts, or those of friends and family, can be a particularly effective and meaningful choice to commemorate a special occasion, honor a loved one or memorialize the life of someone who is no longer among us. Donations may be made in any amount, at any time and may be annotated as honoring or memorializing any special person or occasion. While a small part of the Endowment Fund is used each year; the rest remains invested to grow and meet the special needs of Clelian Heights for years to come.

How are gifts treated for tax purposes?

Gifts to the Endowment Fund are generally fully deductible for income tax and death tax purposes. In addition, if you donate stocks, bonds, real estate or similar assets that are subject to long term capital gains, this can provide a double tax benefit. Not only are you permitted to deduct the full, current value of the donated asset for income tax purposes, you are not charged capital gains tax on the long term capital gain. Contact a qualified professional for further information.

You may also name the Endowment Fund as a beneficiary of any part of your IRA or 401(k)*, a life insurance policy, an investment account or an annuity. This provides an extra benefit because not only is the donation deductible, Clelian Heights pays no income tax on the accrued income making the gift even more valuable. See the example below. Contact a qualified professional for more details.

Certain restrictions apply with regard to a surviving spouse.*

Assume Mr. Smith, a widow with no children leaves an estate of $100,000 cash and $20,000 IRA

If Mr. Smith names his nephew as beneficiary of his IRA and leaves a Will or Trust that gives 20,000 to Clelian Height with everything else to the nephew, not only will the nephew pay inheritance tax on his inheritance, he will also owe income tax on the full $20,000 IRA at withdrawal.

Conversely, if Clelian Heights is named beneficiary of the IRA, while the nephew receives the rest of the estate under the Will or Trust, the nephew receives the same inheritance and pays the same inheritance tax but he owes no income tax potentially saving him several thousand dollars.

FOUNDATIONS WHO SHARE IN OUR DREAMS AND OUR FUTURE

When we took the first steps to build this dream of a better life for special needs children, Clelian Heights opened its doors with 4 staff and 4 children. There was a house in which to live, a barn in which to teach, 42 acres on which to settle and a whole lot of love to give. There was little to spare but there was always an abundance of generosity and willingness to work.

That will-to-give matched with the generosity of many Western Pennsylvania Foundations has taken root over the years and the results have been an education that has made a difference. Most notably, you can see much more than bricks and mortar and organized programs. Clelian Heights has become a vibrant community in the deepest sense of the word. It is filled with the activities of contented, happy people learning and enjoying and supporting one another.

So many dreams have been made into realities. So many special children and adults have grown with the challenge. All have been enriched and enabled to venture on to greater independence.

So much has taken place over these past 46 years! Through it all, the support of our Western Pennsylvania Foundations has been constant and true helping us make our dreams a reality. Thank you and God bless you!

*Money is a great treasure that only increases as you give it away,
Lord Francis Bacon*

Raeann's Creations

What began as a hobby in 2004 for Raeann Sleith has turned into a way to earn money for organizations involved with helping her brother Derek who has Cri du Chat Syndrome along with PDD. Derek is a student at Clelian Heights.

Raeann became interested in making bracelets at six years old and quickly grew more creative designing different specialty bracelets including Faith, Autism, Special Needs and Celtic Rosary. The bracelets are made using different colored beads and charms that represent the type of bracelet being created. Each bracelet is accompanied by a unique card that describes the meaning of the color of beads which are used.

Raeann has donated $650.00 to Clelian Heights. A big thank you goes to Raeann for her continued support of Clelian Heights and her brother Derek!

... For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven
