Clelian Heights Gratitude Report 2019-2020

Dear Friends of Clelian Heights,

We are pleased to present our 2019-2020 Annual Gratitude Report to you. We are so appreciative of all that you have done for us this year. More than that, we are grateful for your friendship and for the prayers, thoughts and good wishes that accompany your generous donations. We are well aware that you have choices when you have the opportunity to give, and we are so pleased that you continue to think of us when you make those choices. This has been a particularly strange and difficult year for all of us. We have followed all the protocols and have kept everyone safe; we have been able to carry on both in-person and virtual instruction in the school and have created a rich Zoom program of activities for our adults. Life at Clelian Heights has been as “normal” as we can safely make it and for this we are most grateful. And, in the midst of all that has gone on, you, our dear friends and benefactors, have continued to be in our thoughts and prayers. Hopefully all is well with you and your families.

Your gifts to us have been a reflection of your desire to be part of the mission here at Clelian Heights and your desire to assist our students and adults as they thrive in the programs we have designed for them. The growth and progress we are privileged to witness each day demonstrate the tremendous efforts made to master tasks that may seem easy to some but reflect so much concentrated thought and attention that many of us might not be able to sustain. We are deeply grateful that, because of your support, we are able to challenge each of our precious charges and to provide the staff, equipment and materials that are needed to foster growth and progress in each individual.

Your generosity is living proof that we are all connected, all part of each other’s story and all responsible for each other. Thank you for sharing in our daily lives, for sharing in all that we accomplish here each day, for caring for those who are often overlooked or underestimated by society. Be assured of our special prayers for you and for your families.

2019 - 2020

We start each day with a grateful heart because you have shown us such generosity and kindness. Thank you for giving to Clelian Heights.

Gratitude is a expression of love—it is a gift of appreciation for gifts given, gifts received. It is expansive in its effect and its reach. It is about cherished acts of kindness and generosity.

Children and adults with disabilities have feelings and abilities to share and that's what education at Clelian Heights is all about—allowing these to develop and grow into personal wholeness so that all the hopes and dreams can become a future filled not only with challenges but with happiness and joy in living.

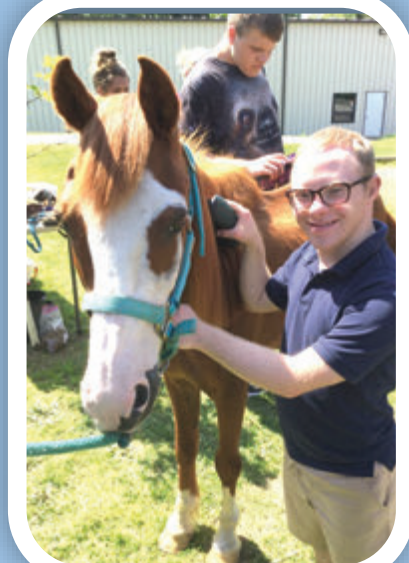

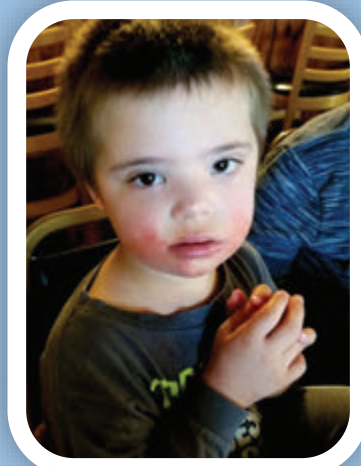

And that is why Clelian Heights is so vital. This year we share some very thoughtful, very insightful, very reassuring words of wisdom and hope from a variety of voices about individual differences and success...

“Children with special needs come into our lives, leaving footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same.” –unknown

“Most people see what is, and never see what can be.” –Albert Einstein

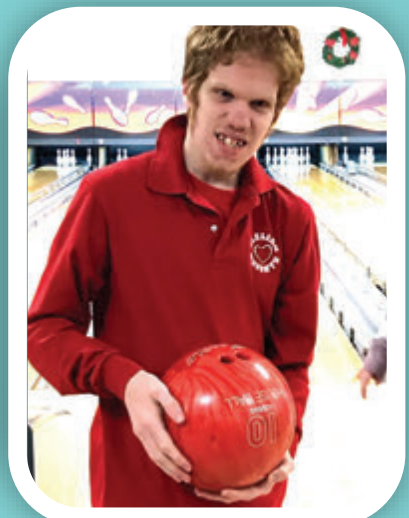

“Some of the most wonderful people are the ones who don’t fit into boxes.” –Tori Amos

“The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched, they must be felt with the heart!” –Helen Keller

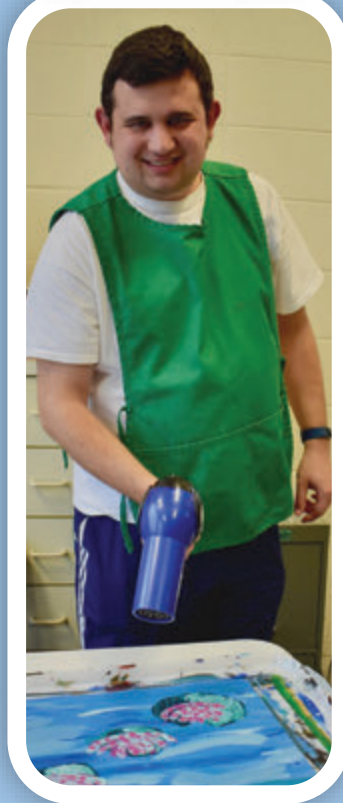

“The things that make me different are the things that make me, me.” –A.A. Milne

“As special needs parents we don’t have the power to make life ‘fair,’ but we do have the power to make life joyful.” –Anonymous

“I wanted a perfect ending. Now I’ve learned the hard way, that some poems don’t rhyme and some stories don’t have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the movement and making the best of it, without knowing what’s going to happen next. Delicious Ambiguity.” —Gilda Radner

“I wouldn’t change my child for the world but I would change the world for my child.” —unknown

“Children with disabilities are like butterflies with broken wings. They are just as beautiful as all others but they need help to spread their wings.” —Inoka Rajapakse

2019 - 2020

“As we let our own light shine we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.” –Marianne Williamson

“Don’t judge a disability by its visibility.” –unknown

“The difference between possible and impossible lies in a person’s determination.”
–Tommy Lasorda

“Sometimes I just stop ‘n thank God for having different plans for me than I had for myself. I have been blessed with a miracle.” –unknown

Snapshots of 2019 - 2020

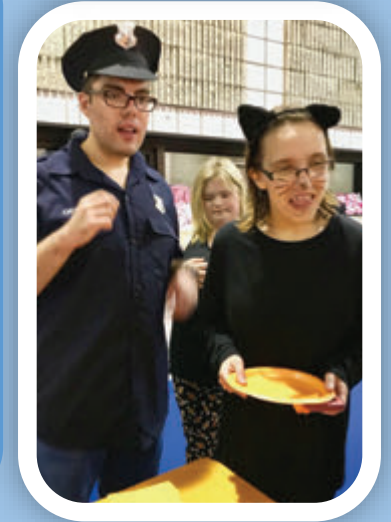

"The worse thing about a disability is that people see it before they see you." —Easter Seals

"Just because I can't walk doesn't mean I can't play."

"Difficult roads often lead to beautiful destinations."
