Season and Out of Season
Building Futures Since 1961

For more than 35 years, Clelian Heights has been helping young lives. During that time, this residential school and vocational center has been preparing men and young adults with developmental disabilities for the challenges of life. Always with the goal of helping them lead productive, happy lives to the extent of their ability.

Founded as a private, non-profit Christian-based organization by the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Clelian Heights has helped countless youngsters, from childhood, to achieve greater independence and personal fulfillment. Today Clelian Heights serves the needs of more than 100 young people in residential, academic, vocational and recreational programs.
