Tenth Annual Clelian Heights Day at Franklin Regional Senior High School

The Sweet Top Coffee Shop is Open For Business

Students and staff in Miss Mary Beth Holleran's class started the Sweet Top Coffee Shop this year. The goal of the shop is to not only provide sweet treats and coffee to our school staff,

This is the 50th Anniversary for

but to provide students with realistic job skills practice.

The Sweet Top Coffee Shop offers coffees, teas, cappuccinos, and a special coffee flavor of the month. Customers can choose from a variety of toppings and flavorings to personalize their orders. Additionally, the shop has smoothies, fruit cups, and yogurt.

Special Olympics in PA!

A Special Visit From the Pittsburgh Pirates

On January 17th, 40 Clelian Heights students participated in a clinic with five Pittsburgh Pirates as part of the Pirates Care-A-Van outreach program. Along with two of the famous Mrs. T's Perogies, Josh Bell, Clay Holmes, Sam Howard, Tarrik Brock, and Justin Meccage ran five stations practicing batting, fielding, catching, base running, and throwing with our students. Our staff and students were joined by volunteers from L.J. Aviation, who assisted students at each station.

Clelian Heights VS Clairview

The Varsity Crusaders Basketball team traveled to Clairview on January 24. Both teams played hard, and at the end of the game Clairview was up by one point. Our cheerleaders made the trip with the team to support their fellow student athletes.
