Clelian Heights at a Glance

Clelian Heights Inc., also known as Clelian Heights School for Exceptional Children, is a licensed, private, non-profit, educational, and vocational facility for children and adults. Founded in 1961 by the community of Sisters, the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Clelian Heights is dedicated to enabling children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, including those on the autism spectrum, to function in the world at their own ability level as contributing and valuable members of society.

Serving Southwestern Pennsylvania with individuals currently in 7 counties and 20 school districts, Clelian Heights provides a continuum of care from age 5 through adulthood and beyond for more than 60 students and 90 adults. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Departments of Human Services and Education license Clelian Heights programs. Services are offered to all, without discrimination on the basis of race, religion, sex, or national origin.

Care begins with a special needs academics environment in the School program beginning at age 5 through 21 that incorporates a transition-to-work program in adolescence and moves on to supported community employment or employment in adulthood at the Clelian Center where services such as mail operations, packaging, small parts assembly, and commercial laundry are contracted with local businesses.

The Clelian Center also produces Captain and Sandy Gourmet Dog Treats, and a variety of Scentsational Soaps made to order.

The facilities include large well-equipped classrooms including a home economics room, art, music and job development rooms, occupational and physical therapy and speech pathology rooms along with a sensory room, a computer room, dining and meeting rooms, a library, an attached recreation center with a fitness area, gym and therapy pool. There is an outdoor pool and a large playground with a pavilion and ball field, a picnic area bike circle and amphitheater. For the adults there is the vocational workshop, bussing and food service training areas along with a greenhouse, dog biscuit bakery, Scentsational Soap room, a green house. Also on campus is a chapel and two apartment buildings for women.

Clelian Heights is the only facility in the area that offers an academic program, adult vocational and personal skills programs, extended school year program, and a residential option for women on its campus.

There are over 140 dedicated teachers, aides, therapists, workshop job coaches and supervisors, resident staff, nursing, administrative, and support staff, along with numerous volunteers who share their time and talents at Clelian Heights. Clelian Heights is governed by a Board of Directors and benefits greatly from the outstanding professional community members serving on its Advisory Board. Learn more about us at: www.clelianheights.org.
