

Worldwide, Valentine's Day is a day of love and sharing - gifts exchanged between those you love, countless flowers and chocolates.

Take today to not only love those close to you, but those who are not as close. Let today and everyday be a day full of love and sharing.

Happy Valentine's Day from Clelian Heights!

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
