About Clelian Heights, the staff says...

"I'm so happy tha I teach at Clelian Heights -- it's a privilege and a blessing!
I love the kids and I enjoy my job.
The students are very special and there's a lot of love here.
I'm appreciated here.
I think Cleian a special place. Everyone is so nice.
I enjoy working with the young adults-it's very rewarding.
It's an enriching experience for all of us.
The children are very special to me.
Clelian Heights is a unique place and has many challenges.
I like helping both staff and children, it's like a big family.
Everyone shares in the ups and downs, and most often everyone is up!
For me, this is truly the work of God and it is so easy to see his love in the children.
I'm impressed by the love and attention the children receive and it's catching.
There is a wonderful family spirit and a lot of love and caring going on all the time.
It's friendly and there's an open spirit here.
I like the honesty and openness of the children.
Clelian is one of a kind and I like its specialness.
We value one another and what a precious gift that is!
Clelian Heights makes me feel good from inside out!
It's a place of love and hope and I love being a part of it and seeing the children learn independence."

The Parents say,

"What I like most about Clelian Heights is...

That everyone seems to take time to listen to the children.

The family atmosphere - there's no place like Clelian!

The many activities & opportunities not available elsewhere.

That my child has really blossomed and changed so much for the good since being a part of all this.

The loving atmosphere that encourages the children and gives positive reinforcement.

The openness and friendliness between parents, sisters, teachers and students.

The quality of the facility and that you are a family!

The best thing about Clelian Heights is the terrific staff.

I'm deeply impressed with the care and the love given to all.

The love that is shown, taught, and promoted.

It's a great program!

The love, the care, the good home-cooked food!

The children learn so much! The school is excellent!

The small class size and the positive philosophy.

The physical plant is magnificent and it's so clean!

The care and respect given our children is outstanding.

The dignity of each student is always addressed.

The opportunity for extra curricular activities.

The commitment and care given to my daughter.

The peacefulness and family atmosphere.

The caring sisters and lay staff.

The quality of the program and the care provided.

The family atmosphere, politeness, correct social skills, and much more learned by the students.

The good academic and social education.

The individual attention, relationships, and friendships that are being formed.

The love and experience the staff has to offer.

The care our children get is outstanding.

All our children are treated just as normal children would be.

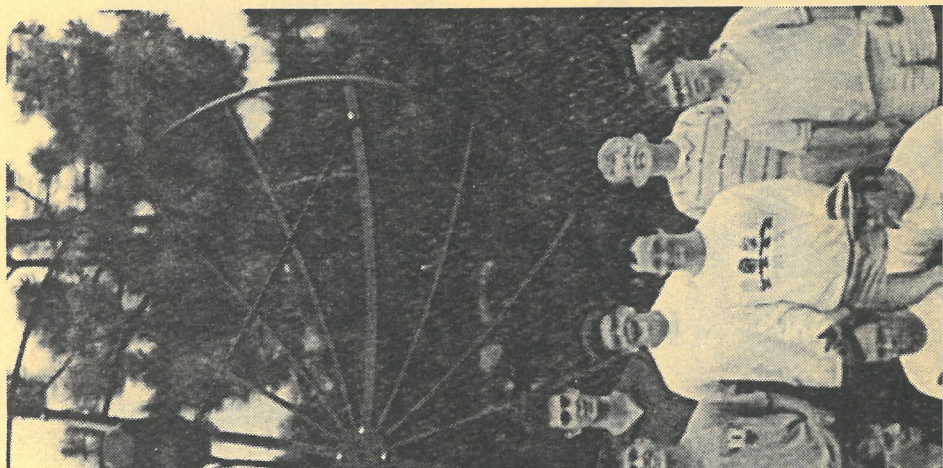

The overall loving atmosphere that my child definitely feels.

The great cooperation between parents and staff.

EVERYTHING—personal contact most!"
